

2018 farmers market nutrition program

sales locations and information

Eligible women, infants, children and seniors can purchase Alaska grown fruits, vegetables and herbs from authorized farmers and farmstands listed in this booklet between June 1st & October 31st.

Alaska honey is authorized for purchase with seniors coupons only.

Check out our new sign!

WIC Fruit and Vegetable Vouchers (FVV's) can be used to purchase fresh Alaskan produce from our farmers and farmstands, too!

Participants are limited to $30.00 in coupons per season.
No cash change will be provided for unused benefits.

Don't forget to make half your plate fruits and vegetables!

To file a complaint about a participating farmer, farmstand, farmers' market, or coupon distribution agency, contact the State WIC Office at (907) 465-3100 or submit a complaint form available by request at any coupon distribution agency or online at www.familynutrition.alaska.gov.
